

March 17–24, 2012

Discover Watersheds, Explore Hidden Nature Gems, Volunteer and Do Your Part!

Dozens of Fun, Educational Activities and Volunteer Opportunities

Discover: Education

- Monday 3/19 Northeast Creek and Crooked Creek watershed plan info with family activities (hands on model, food, crafts, story time). South Regional Library, 6:30–8:30 p.m.
- Thursday 3/22 Stories and Songs from the Eno with the Eno River Boys. North Regional Library, 7 p.m.
- Saturday 3/24 Birds, butterflies, and tree planting at Sandy Creek Park. 9 a.m.– 1 p.m.

Explore: Recreation

- Sunday 3/18 Wildflower Walk led by Eno River Assoc. 2 p.m.
- Friday 3/23 Bats of the Eno at Eno River State Park, 6:30 p.m.
- Saturday 3/24 Birding Walk at 17–Acre Wood Preserve on Ellerbe Creek, 2–4 p.m.

Volunteer: Do your Part

- Saturday 3/17 Volunteer for stream cleanups throughout Durham, 9–12
- Thursday 3/24 Canines for Clean Water Pledge at Northgate or Piney Woods Dog Park, 4–6 p.m.
- Anytime Label storm drains in your neighborhood

Go Green for St. Patrick's Day with Creek Week! Get your Creek Week drink special, benefiting Keep Durham Beautiful, at Bull City Burger and Brewery, Geer Street Garden, Pinhook, or The Bar on March 17 (check back for additional participants). Participate in a cleanup for a chance to win a drink ticket for Fullsteam Brewery.

And many more! Most events are free; check website for details and to learn more.

www.DurhamCreekWeek.org

